MAKES EXAMINATION OF NIVLOG PROPERTY

John A. Burgess, well known mining engineer, and formerly connected with the Tonopah Mining company, later with the Nevada Wonder, and still later with the United Eastern, the last named company operating at Oatman, but who now maintains engineering offices in San Francisco, is a visitor to Tonopah. Mr. Burgess has just completed an examination of the Nivlog property, situated 12 miles south of Silver Peak, but concerning the results of his findings he is inclined to be reticent.

Mr. Burgess states that the shaft on the Nivlog is down to a depth of 440 feet, and that a contract has been awarded for the sinking of an additional 100 feet. Whether work will be resumed upon a more pretentious scale he does not know, but those familiar with the holdings are aware of its wonderful mineral possibilities.

SATURDAY CONCERT IS PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

The concert given Saturday night by the entertainment committee of the Knights of Pythias at their new auditorium, which was followed by a dance resulted in about $100 being realized. There were 408 admissions to the concert, which proved highly entertaining, and the California Jubilee quartet received many caresses. Returns on sales of tickets for the Thanksgiving dance are not yet all reported.

Hats which were returned from the Thanksgiving dance, and remaining undamaged, are as follows: One black felt hat, sold from the Hub stores, Red Lodge, Mont.; one light brown felt hat, sold by Lewis & Luky, Reno; one brownish green cap, with green lining; one olive green velvet felt hat, Paris make, with red silk lining.

Overcoats still missing are as follows: Ed Hill, T. & G. market, iron gray, rather long, vertical breast pockets, McIntosh label inside, gray cap, tan gloves and crooked stem pipe in pocket. Ed Davidson, Goldfield, brown outside, plaid inside, belt with leather buckle in front. Fred Nye, Bryan house, overcoat and Stetson hat.

Racks for checking coats and hats have been installed and no further annoyance from this source will result.

AMUSEMENTS

WESLEY BARRY IN "SCHOOL DAYS" TODAY

Wesley Barry, the freckle-faced movie star, plays bookee more than once in Gus Edwards' screen play, "School Days," which will be shown at the Butler today. And in playing hooked Wesley is said to laid the foundation for a story that will appeal to every human being who has experienced the thrills, the pranks and the many disappointments of boyhood. The story centers around the small town boy who loves the old swimming hole and his dog, Hippy, better than anything else in the world. He goes to a wealthy uncle who sends him east to get an education. Here he meets many of the youngsters of wealthy parents and finds himself out of the social swim. He is beset by many trials and tribulations and finally he goes back home to his faithful dog and his little country sweetheart, via the freight train route. It's the screen classic of the year and brings back the irresponsible, untamable heart of boyhood in the greatest boy story ever filmed. Tomorrow, Roy Stewart in a Peter B. Kyne story, "The Innocent Cheat."

BROWN IMPROVES

Advice received from San Francisco are to the effect that H. Fred Brown, the broker, who is suffering with an infected leg as a result of the flu, will be able to leave the hospital this week. He is making a splendid recovery and should be able to return during the course of the next ten days.

THE CHRISTMAS SEAL

Ho, Little Seal, with your message of hope.

Flung to a world as a life-saver's rope.

Seek you the palace and seek you the shed.

Soft little pillow for suffering's head!

Ho, Little Seal, with your message of cheer.

Building up courage and casting out fear.

Shed you God's sunlight in castle and cave.

Bright little beacon of lives that you save.

Ho, Little Seal, with your message to men.

Lifting them back to life's high road again.

Keep you the air of God's heaven above.

Flowing gently to heal them we love.

—Walter Greenough.

CARD OF THANKS
